

Associate Professor Dr Marhani Midin

Associate Professor Dr Marhani Midin is a Consultant Psychiatrist in the University Kebangsaan Malaysia Medical Centre (UKMMC), Cheras, Kuala Lumpur. She heads the Community Psychiatry and Psychosocial Intervention unit Division in the Department of Psychiatry since year 2011. She received Master of international Mental Health from University of Melbourne in 2005 and had clinical attachment at St. Vincent's Mental Health Center, Melbourne in 2004. She was part of the team that started hospital based community service in UKMMC since in early 2006. The service deals with client with severe mental illness who required intensive outpatient services and additional psychosocial needs. Besides her academic roles as senior lecturer and the coordinator for Postgraduate training for Psychiatry and Psychological Medicine, she is very much active in research related psychiatry in general and particular on the community and rehabilitation of psychiatric patients and has presented her papers in the local and international conferences.