

Tatiana I. GALAKO, Associated professor, MD.Ph.D

In 1983 upon graduation from the Kyrgyz State Medical Institute and subsequent clinical residency T.G. started her career as a research associate in the medicopsychology faculty of the Kyrgyz Cardiology-Research Institute.

Since 1989 a member of clinical psychology, psychiatry and narcology (later, psychiatry, psycho-therapy and narcology) academic department in the Kyrgyz State Medical Academy;

Since 2009 - the Head of the Department.

Since 2006: Vice-President and since 2012, the President of the Kyrgyz Psychiatric Association.

Highest Doctor's Category, a member of the Specialized and Expert Panels.

Research interests: psychosomatic medicine, problems of stigmatization and destigmatization, ethnocultural aspects of psychiatry; since recently: problems of resistance to the therapy by psychotropic medication and their misuse.